

I oppose the proposed change in ownership rules because they will lead to more media consolidation. It is not in the public interest and it is not in line with the principles behind freedom of the press.